

Last Month at Political Committee

January 2006

The South East Michigan Group's Political Committee had another very well attended meeting in February, with 23 members present. It was a very motivated crowd at Jimmy's Restaurant, and we accomplished a lot in preparation for the coming election year.

We had John Ashcraft, candidate for Congress in the 9th District, speak about his campaign and Joe Knollenberg's record. We formed a committee to organize a candidate forum for all the candidates in the 9th District race, to be held in March. And we decided to use the occasion as our endorsement interview.

We discussed other issues, such as legislative score cards, our coming lobby day, candidate house parties and the upcoming SEMG fundraiser dinner. The fundraiser will be at 6:00 on April 28th, at the Birmingham Universalist Church. Volunteers are needed.

See you next time, at Jimmie's.
