

January 2005 Political Committee Meeting as interpreted by: Patti Smith

S is for Steve Walker will continue to be our representative to the Chapter Political Committee

I is for In-district meetings. The Legislative Committee sets up meetings with state representatives in local districts and our members will be attending them. More details on dates and times as we get them.

E is for the Elections that are coming up in November! Most cities are having elections this year and we are going to target Detroit, Southfield, Royal Oak, Farmington Hills and Berkley. If you live in any of these cities, please contact Tim Killeen to get involved!

R is to Re-elect Stabenow in 2006! We began discussing plans for fundraising and other activities for Debbie Stabenow's 2006 campaign.

R is for Representatives! We will bring more local, elected representatives to our upcoming political committee meetings.

A is because we Always need more help and more volunteers!! Please contact Tim or come to our next meeting, on February 24 at 6:30 at Jimi's in Royal Oak.
